

Troops growing in Caldwell

Troops from the Caldwell (Idaho) Corps participated in the Cascade Division's Eastside Rally with 35 children—more than doubling last year's participation of 15.

As the troop program continues to steadily grow, so does Sunday school attendance, which has increased from an average of six to 16 children.

Program goals are to make sure every child feels accepted and loved by the leaders, and that they come to know Christ.

Lts. Brent and Kristy Church are the Caldwell corps officers.
